THE NINETEENTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT
OF THE

Mullumet District Benevolent Asylum
AND LYING-IN HOSPITAL.

TO THE GOVERNORS AND SUBSCRIBERS—

Your Committee, in presenting an account of their labors for the year 1876-7, are highly gratified in being able to report that the Institution, whether as concerns its internal arrangements and management, or its finances, is in a most satisfactory position. While the management of the Institution, especially in the supervision of the large out-door relief, incurred much hard work on us, we felt much anxiety in getting together the means for defraying the necessarily heavy expenditure, especially as our year of office commenced with a debt of nearly £1000. Later on in this report we have entered our protest against the responsibility which the Committee of this Asylum undertakes, in having to defray a very heavy expenditure by means of an income at all times uncertain, and we have taken the liberty of pointing out how this uncertain and chance way of obtaining revenue may be remedied.

By the exercise of as much economy as was compatible with efficiency, we have succeeded in reducing the debt to £465 8s 7d, while the bank overdraft is less than for last year by £349 19s 4d.

You will be glad to learn that the average daily number of inmates for 1876 shows no increase, being the same as for 1875, viz., 232; and that, what is even more gratifying, the out-door relief shows a reduction of 4 adults and 31 children per week. Another pleasing fact to be noticed is, that the out-door relief expenditure has been reduced by £146 7s 4d, and the total expenditure by £126 2s 1d. But the greatest cause for gratification is to be found in the admirable manner in which the receipts have been maintained. The amount raised, viz., £2457 13s, may be considered as highly satisfactory, the item of private subscriptions especially showing well, the amount being the largest ever raised by the Asylum in any one year. The bank overdraft 31st December was £2090 8s 7d. Against this amount the second instalment of grant in aid is due, amounting to £1625, leaving the Asylum indebted £465 8s 7d.

On 31st December, 1875, there remained in the Asylum 202 males and 25 females; total, 227. During the year there have been admitted 108 males and 55 females (including births), so that in all 390 inmates have been resident. Of these there have been discharged 105 males and 49 females (included in these figures are 37 deaths which have taken place), total 154, leaving in the Asylum at the end of the year 205 males and 31 females; total, 236.

We append as usual a table of diseases from which the inmates are suffering, and which incapacitates them from earning a livelihood; this it is necessary to do, as we find the public somewhat dubious as to the capabilities of many of the inmates for work:—

ANALYSIS OF DISEASES FROM WHICH THE INMATES OF THE BALLARAT DISTRICT BENEVOLENT ASYLUM ARE SUFFERING.

Blind	...	22	Painters' Disease	...	1
Paralysis	...	29	Lune	...	7
Consumption	...	3	Enlargement of Spleen	...	1

Rheumatism	...	19	Infants	...	2
Asthma	...	2
Deafness	...	2	Total	...	236

These cases are under the daily inspection of the non-resident surgeon and constantly under the eye of the experienced and vigilant master; and the public may rest thoroughly satisfied that, as far as the inmates at least are concerned, imposition is scarcely possible. They are not kept idle; those able to perform light work are employed about the house and grounds in different capacities, according to their strength. For encouragement some little extras are allowed, and many of the inmates are found to be exceedingly useful.

The average cost per head for 1876 was £17 12s 10d, which will compare very favorably with other similar institutions.

The produce of the garden at market rates amounts to £171 10s 8d. The dairy has for the past year realised a profit £109 18s 10d.

THE LYING-IN HOSPITAL.

Respecting this part of the Asylum's work, it is pleasing to note that a considerable reduction in the number of cases has taken place. The year just passed compares most favorably with previous ones in the number of cases dealt with. The good effected by this branch is not too well known. The nature of the cases forbids publicity, but it should be made known that every effort is made to reclaim the fallen and to render them respectable and useful members of society. Through the endeavors of your Committee, and by the agency of some well-known large-hearted ladies of Ballarat, situations are found for many of these young females on leaving. Their career is overlooked, and by the exercise of judicious kindness many happy hearts and homes have been made, when otherwise nothing probably was before the erring ones but a degraded life of shame.

The public, we trust, will see in this one of the many directions in which the committee of this particular Institution is placed in a position to effect a large amount of moral good. Its duties are not confined to the mere dry details of business, but from the infinite variety of the cases with which it is brought into contact, it is enabled to encourage the industrious, to reclaim the fallen, to sympathise with and advise the weak and unfortunate, and in an endless variety of ways to effect moral advancement as well as physical good in those who in their troubles and misfortunes apply to the Institution for assistance.

OUT-DOOR RELIEF

The weekly average of out-door relief for 1876 was 395 adults and 500 children, against 399 adults and 531 children for 1875, a reduction of four adults and 31 children per week. The total cost amounted to £2921 7s 6d. The details of the working of this important branch were very minutely entered into last year, and as your Committee before closing this report have to refer to matters of considerable importance, it must suffice to mention that, as with the working of the Lying-in Hospital, so also in working out the details of the out-door relief your Committee go outside the mere giving of rations, and in encouraging a feeling of independence on the part of the applicants, and by reasonable and judicious assistance, endeavor to save them from the baneful humiliation of becoming recipients of public charity. In this and in many other ways your Committee have endeavored to achieve as much social and moral good as they possibly could.

Although time and space presses, mention must be made of the efforts put forth on behalf of the sufferers by the scarlet fever epidemic, which raged so fiercely during the year. At the request of the City and Town Councils the Institution readily undertook the charge of the indigent families suffering from the fever.

A very large number of cases were visited by the non-resident surgeon, prescribed for, and medical comforts and food supplied, and though a considerable expenditure was incurred in carrying out this humane work, yet in view of the lives saved, and pain and suffering alleviated, your committee cannot but congratulate themselves on having been the means of doing so much good. In carrying out his duties with respect to the scarlet fever cases, Dr Holthouse worked so assiduously, and at so great a sacrifice of his time, that a well-deserved bonus of £50 was granted him, a gift of which you will no doubt heartily approve.

It was found necessary during the year to again make an appeal to the public for assistance in the form of a Charity Fete at the Botanical Gardens, A noble response was made, and some 16,000 persons attended, and although the prices charged were exceedingly low, yet the profit realised, with the Government grant in aid, amounts to a sum of over £900. The most hearty thanks of your Committee are due and are hereby conveyed to all concerned in carrying out the fete, and in connection therewith we have the honor to recommend that the names of Mr E. J. Piper and Mr J. Moss be placed on the list of Life-Governors of the Institution, in consideration of the special services rendered by those gentlemen and their respective companies. It would be ungenerous not to mention that Mr Stevenson, the father of the wonderful Blondin, placed the gratuitous services of his clever son at our disposal. His surprising performance was undoubtedly the chief attraction of the fete, and your Committee do most heartily thank them for their kind and valuable assistance.

During the year Mr G. Lovitt, an old and experienced member of the Committee, resigned; Mr. R. A. Armstrong was appointed in his place, and in view of the long and valuable services rendered by Mr Lovitt, an address setting forth the same was presented to him.

Your best thanks are due to Mr R. Allan, Mr R. W. Tanner, Mr J. Strickland, and other gentlemen who so kindly act as visitors in the country districts, and it is almost needless to state that Messrs Whitcombe, Usher, and Butler, the Honorary Medical Officers, have as of old at all times most readily responded to any calls made upon them for their valuable aid.

We now come to what may be termed the most important topic in connection with our report, viz., "the unsatisfactory financial position in which the Shire and Municipal Councils in the district stand in relation to the Benevolent Asylum, which confers such obligations upon them." To make this position plain it is necessary to state that previous to the year 1871 the Shire Councils could not subscribe, as such payments were then illegal. A clause, however, was passed enabling such donations to be given. A deputation from your Committee waited upon the Councils to urge the claims of the Asylum, with this result, that from the Shire and Borough Councils during the year 1871 the Institution received the sum of £826. This was not considered unreasonable as a beginning; but as year after year the number of cases from the shire districts increased, and of course the expenditure in proportion, applications were earnestly and constantly made for the donations to be increased, but with so little effect that while several Councils have decreased their subscriptions one or two of the wealthiest and most populous were with difficulty persuaded from making sweeping reductions. Against the amount mentioned as having been received for 1871, viz., £826, only £573 was received for 1875, and this reduction has been made in the face of the returns constantly supplied showing the increased numbers received or dealt with by the Asylum.

Nothing but the constant energy and perseverance brought to bear in obtaining contributions, and the success which has attended the benefits organised on a large scale, has prevented the Institution from becoming seriously crippled in its resources, and utterly unable to cope with the demands made upon it for help. Against this state of things your Committee strongly demur. Why, we would ask, should a number of Ballarat citizens be expected to give so much time and labor in the management of the largest and most important Institution out of Melbourne, and at the very commencement of their duties to be unaware where the means are to come from to meet the necessarily heavy expenditure they are bound to incur? Is it nothing, your Committee would ask, to undertake the maintenance and clothing of 232 inmates, and to find food for 900 souls outside, and not to know three months in advance where the means are to come from to enable them to perform their responsible and anxious work?

Your Committee feel acutely the hand-to-mouth way by which the great and noble Institution over which they preside is supported, with the probability ever staring them in the face that at any time the finances may collapse on account of there being no sure foundation for an income on which they might with certainty rely.

Largely increased donations from the Shire and Borough Councils is the only remedy against this state of things. The sums given by these bodies are far too small, and even these amounts are given in a manner that leads to the conclusion that in donating they are conferring a favor on the Institution. Your Committee on the other hand take up this position—that the Shire and Borough Councils are responsible for the poor of their districts, and owe a great debt of gratitude to the Institution for receiving their cases, and to its Committee in undertaking their management at the cost of so much expense, anxiety, and labor. So much was this position felt that during the year your Committee appointed a sub-committee to go into the whole question of these donations.

The following report and recommendations, together with exhaustive returns of receipts from, and expenditure incurred by each district, and the number of cases sent in from the very commencement of the Institution, was brought up for consideration, and after a most careful investigation adopted by us.

The following is the report alluded to:—

REPORT OF SHIRE AND BOROUGH COUNCIL SUB-COMMITTEE TO THE COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT OF THE BALLARAT DISTRICT BENEVOLENT ASYLUM.

To the Committee of Management.

GENTLEMEN,

We have the honor to report that the question of Shire and Borough Council Donations to the Institution, together with the support received from each District by general contributions, has received a searching and earnest examination at our hands.

We have been enabled, by means of the exhaustive returns prepared by the Secretary, showing the receipts from, and expenditure upon, the several Shire and Borough Districts each year from the commencement of the Institution, to see very clearly the way in which it has been supported, and what Districts have fallen short of contributing their proper share towards the maintenance of their poor.

The returns show most clearly that the system at present obtaining for securing contributions is most unequal and unfair.

Some of the largest and most wealthy Shires in the Asylum's District have sent scores of inmates into the Institution, but have escaped nearly scot-free from the onus of their maintenance, which has thus been thrown on other Districts. The distant Shires of Wimmera, Stawell, and Ararat, especially show to great disadvantage in this respect.

You will find on reference to the returns, that for 17 years the number of cases received from those Shires amounted to 432, at an expenditure of £5554 13s 11d, while the total amount of contributions from all sources did not exceed the small sum of £539 4s 9d.

Coming nearer home, the Shires of Bungaree, Creswick, and Ballan have also been miserably deficient in contributing to the support of their own poor, as from the starting of the Asylum they have sent in 474 inmates at an expenditure—including out-door relief—of £8145 15s 10d, and subscribed towards their support the ridiculously inadequate sum of £885 5s 2d. The same applies equally to some of the Borough Districts, especially to Creswick and Smythes. The expenditure on these two Boroughs, for instance, amounts to £3115 19s 2d, as against £574 19s for subscriptions received.

We must express our surprise that the large landed proprietors of the District have done so little for the Institution, which is crowded with inmates from their stations.

Your Sub-Committee regret to state that there are hundreds of wealthy landed proprietors in the Asylum's district who have never subscribed one penny to the Institution, although every effort has been made to induce them to do so, and we do most warmly protest against this well-to-do part of the community being allowed to escape from contributing their proper share towards the maintenance of an Institution which does more for their particular class than any other.

No greater proof of the absurd inequality of the present system, and the necessity which exists for some alteration that will have the result of causing each District to contribute in proportion to the claim of the Institution upon it, can be afforded than the surprising fact shown in return No. 3. that out of £35,743 15s 4d received in subscriptions from all sources from 1859 to 1875, Ballarat alone has contributed £25,584 15s 1d, and this in face of the fact that it has contributed only 1357 cases as against 2870 sent into the Asylum from the outside Districts, whose united subscriptions amounted to £10,159 0s 3d only. On examining return No. 2 we were struck by the small amounts received from the Borough and Shire Councils, and are of opinion that the same should be largely increased.

Some of the bodies referred to hold the opinion that their grant should be in proportion to the general subscriptions raised in their District, but we beg, however, strongly to dissent from this view.

We hold, from all the evidence before us, that the time has arrived when the Committee of Management of this great and growing Institution should have at the commencement of each year a sure and certain source of revenue, or at least a ground-work of income upon which it could rely for carrying out its operations, and not be dependant, as at present, upon the chance and fickle vote of public bodies, and the variableness and uncertainty of general contributions; and as it is very possible that in a few years, or sooner, endeavours may be made to introduce a Poor Law under Government control, a fact we should greatly deplore, believing that these Institutions can be more economically and wisely managed under local management, we think it would be wise to forestall and, if possible, prevent such a contingency, by urging on the consideration of the several local bodies the advisability of donating to this Institution, commencing with the year 1877, an amount equal to one penny in the pound on their annual valuation; the result of this action would be that the Asylum would be in receipt of a certain ground-work of income, and we believe the amount now received in general contributions would be little, if any, affected.

The seventeen years' experience of your Committee trends in this direction, that it will be better and wiser for the Municipal and Shire Councils to have the Institution under their control; in fact, to make it their own, rather than to face on a poor law, under Government control, with all its well-known contingent drawbacks and miseries.

In order to place before you our opinions in a way convenient for your consideration and discussion, we have the honor to embody them in the two following clauses.

CLAUSE No. 1.

We beg to recommend that the necessary steps be taken to have the Asylum's District narrowed to a more workable area, by excising from its operations the Shires of Wimmera, Stawell and Ararat, not only on account of the difficulty surrounding the admission of cases from those Shires, but more particularly on account of the meagre support received for the maintenance of their cases, which are constantly kept at the cost of Ballarat and other more liberal Districts; the distance and scattered nature of the population also rendering it impossible to have an efficient and successful canvass made for subscriptions.

CLAUSE No. 2.

We recommend that application be made to each Borough and Shire Council in the Asylum's District for a yearly donation equal in value to one penny per pound on its annual valuation, and that they at the same time be informed, that in the event of their refusing to comply with the request, the Committee of the Institution will keep an account with their Shire or Borough, giving credit for all contributions received, and debiting them with the expenditure incurred on their cases, and that any deficiency arising will be charged to them and application made for the amount, and that should payment of the same be refused, steps will be taken to discontinue their District from the Asylum's operations until it is again in credit.

C. C. SHOPPEE,

R. LEWIS,

JAMES ODDIE,

J. T. PHILLIPS,

CHAS. SALTER.

10TH AUGUST, 1876.

PETER CAZALY, SECRETARY.

This report, accompanied by the tables of statistics, was sent to each shire and municipal council in the district, together with a strong appeal. In one or two instances no reply has been received, in others a curt refusal was forwarded. In one case only was your Committee successful in securing an increased donation, viz, from the Ballaratshire Council, and though the increase is not, we consider, sufficient, yet we beg to thank the members of that Council for their courtesy and consideration. The question has been raised, "how will other institutions stand affected by the proposed plan?" To this we reply that in all communities the care of the poor is the first consideration. So much is this evident that in England and other countries their cost is defrayed by the State. There is not, however, the least occasion for that in this district if the several Shire and Municipal Councils become alive to their responsibility, and donate much more liberally than they now do.

At all events, your Committee strongly object to be dependent upon the precariousness of private subscriptions to carry on the Institution.

The community being principally a mining one is subject to great vicissitudes, and it is extremely harassing for the management of a large Institution like the Benevolent Asylum to be at one period in a fair position, and at another hampered by heavy financial obligations.

You are requested this evening to consider the action taken in respect to the Shire and Borough Councils; we trust you will approve of the same, and that you will strengthen the hands of the incoming Committee by some definite instructions for their guidance.

We hope that ere the close of the year the different public bodies will in an amicable spirit meet your Committee in their views, and deal much more liberally with an Institution which does such great things for them.

Having trespassed thus far on your time we will, in conclusion, simply wish God speed to our successors in office, and express our earnest hope that the Almighty, as in the past, will greatly bless this noble Institution, which through the labors of its hard-working and self-denying Committee does so much good on behalf of suffering mankind.

After the foregoing Report was read, the following resolution was passed unanimously by a very large meeting of the subscribers to the Institution:—

“That this meeting of subscribers of the Ballarat District Benevolent Asylum heartily approves of the action taken by the late Committee in recommending the Shire and Municipal Councils to donate to the Institution a sum equal to one penny in the pound on their respective valuations, and that this meeting being unanimously of opinion that the grants made by the Shire and Borough Councils are far too small in comparison with the benefits conferred on them, the incoming Committee are requested to forward a copy of this resolution to each Shire and Borough Council in the district, and to put forth every effort to induce the bodies referred to to subscribe more liberally and in accordance with the expenditure of the Institution upon them.”
