STAFF CHANGES.—On the enlistment for active service of our Medical Officer, Dr. Mervyn Robinson, leave of absence for the duration of the war was given him. Dr. W. A. Spring generously volunteered to accept the position until the return of Dr. Robinson.

Other members of the staff who enlisted for war service are H. G. Taylor, C. C. Ellis and G. D. Taylor. These are all returned soldiers from the last war and leave has been given for the duration of this war.

On the resignation of Sister Wilson the appointment of Sister Zachariah was made, and later this lady was appointed to the position of Sub-Matron.

That the work of the Home, both in its administrative department and in the general services to the inmates, has been carried on satisfactorily reflects creditably upon the loyalty and devotion of the whole of our employees. I wish to refer in particular to the office staff in the persons of Miss Padgett and Miss May Maddren. These young ladies are entitled to our best thanks. They are working in a temporary office under difficult conditions, and I express your appreciation as well as my own in complimenting them.

I have already referred to our indefatigable Secretary and Superintendent, Mr. Keith Mackay. The work entailed in managing a family of some 300 helpless individuals, and controlling the services and staff necessary to feed and house them, is surely a great task. But when, in addition, a general oversight of nearly £100,000 worth of new buildings is added, and this amid a necessary improvisation of temporary quarters, it may safely be said that Mr. Mackay is handling a full size job. He is doing it well and presents, in unusually difficult conditions, due to serious ill-health, an evidence of capacity in administration which is wholly admirable.

Mr. Mackay is, as are we, fortunate in the co-operation of an extremely competent and cheerfully helpful Matron in Sister Mandeville Halls. Here again this Board, and indeed the Institution as a whole, are fortunate beyond expression. Matron Halls has endeared herself to all with whom she has come into contact, both patients and staff, as well as those honorary workers and visitors who love to help our Home.

HONORARY STAFF.—I have again to thank our Honorary Staff for valued and constant attention to the requirements of our patients.

HONORARY SOLICITOR.—In our Honorary Solicitor, Mr. H. G. Morrow, we possess a gentleman whose professional services are constantly in demand, and whose professional advice, so cheerfully and freely given, is of immense value to the Home.

BOARD CHANGES.—On the resignation of Mr. W. J. Carthew, referred to in my last report, Mr. J. Smail was elected to the Board and has already satisfied us all that in this gentleman we have a valuable addition to the Board. Owing to continued ill-health, Mr. W. Boustead felt it incumbent upon him to retire from active participation in our work. We regret his resignation, but much more deeply deplore the cause. Mr. H. G. Hammer has been appointed by the Board in the place of Mr. Boustead. We look forward to valued co-operation from Mr. Hammer.

LADIES' AUXILIARY.—Like ourselves, our Ladies' Auxiliary has been hampered in many ways by the building operations. Nevertheless this band of cheerful workers contrives to make the old folk happy. On behalf of the Board, I thank these ladies sincerely.

INSPECTOR OF CHARITIES.—In my report last year, I referred to the many services of a valuable nature rendered by the Inspector of Charities. We have had many occasions to seek Mr. McVilly's advice during the year, and have been greatly assisted by his readiness to share with us the benefits of his wide experience and sound judgment.

And now once again I have to thank the members of this Board for the remarkable way in which one and all have assisted in the rather more than usually strenuous labours of the past year. The appointment of a Publicity Committee of three, namely Messrs. A. C. Fraser, C. N. Eyres and J. Smail will, I feel certain, be justified by results. The members of the Board of Management have been most attentive and painstaking. I think it would be difficult to find a more conscientious body of workers in the divine call of Charity. I thank you all.

F. T. DAVIES, President.
